When the greatest
artists of the land
gazed upon the
svelte beauty divine,
they grew awa-
struck by their un-
paralleled charm.
Many spells were cast and scouts sent
around the world to create magical garments to clothe
these beauties.
These were the finest threads that
they could conjure,
the purest of the
pure!

A full-page photograph of a woman standing in a studio setting. She is wearing a light pink saree with a vibrant floral pattern in shades of red, orange, and yellow. The saree has a long, flowing pallu that reaches down to the floor. She is also wearing a matching pink blouse. Her hair is styled in loose waves, and she is looking directly at the camera with a slight smile. The background is a bright blue sky with soft white clouds. To the left of the woman, there is a tall, white, rectangular pillar. The overall lighting is bright and even, highlighting the colors of the saree and the woman's features.

They hail from a world where all is heavenly. They belong to an age which was truly golden. Whatever the world had lost is contained in their bosoms and in their smile, which shines with the purest gold. They were carved from desire, and so too their dresses... which are a source of great envy to all those who don't possess them.

When they talk, the world listens.
When they walk, the world stares in awe. When they deck up in these amazing garments, the world forgets its troubles. These maidens are carved out of pure class, and so too their magnificent salwar!
