What our beloved people are made of
and the glamour of everything we don't even need the shade of words to describe

EVERYTHING

Everything
Glamour
Today, people are more into the glitz
and the glamour of everything. We don't ever read the words of records anymore.

Today, people are more into the glitz and the glamour of everything. We don't even miss the miss of razzis anymore. glamour

Happy being
 I don't need many things
 I don't need glamour and attention to be happy.
 I'm very happy being settled and working my butt off and trying to win grand slams.
