

The background of the entire cover is a dark, almost black, field of various iris flowers. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing deep red petals, others a soft pink, and some pure white. The centers of the flowers are detailed with yellow stamens. The overall composition is a dense, artistic arrangement of these flowers, with some leaves visible at the bottom. The title 'IRIS' is positioned in the upper right, and 'Vol. 13' is centered within a thin white rectangular border.
