

A woman with dark hair, wearing a vibrant red and gold handloom silk saree, is seated on an ornate, high-backed throne. The throne has a reddish-brown upholstered back and silver-colored metalwork. She is looking off to the side with a serene expression. The setting is a grand, brightly lit hallway with white walls, arched doorways, and a high ceiling. A large, ornate chandelier hangs from the ceiling, and a potted plant is visible in the background. The overall atmosphere is one of elegance and traditional Indian craftsmanship.
