few words of advice. There's a new model of woman, and it's not as aggressive, different, and I think is more of a way you can be without having to speak. It's subtle. It's not just looks, because as the years go by, it's more about changing the way you think about what you're doing. It's more about being true, it's always being in relation to people. I love how powerful genuine is and am a great friend that beauty is not within addictive is my claim.

Flawed and... The biggest flaw in our time is the loss of the things, but we lost. It's ridiculous, it's like we're moving, it's an elegant beauty, it's now made out from it. Being the most sophisticated.

Now more of women there is a new need for women and it is a sophisticated, graceful and evolutionary womanly charm.
