"They were saved from death"

The glowing damsels

They said from a world where all is darkness, They brought a age which was truly golden. (However the world had lost is surrounded in their bosoms and in their smile, which shines with the sunbeam).

The ruler of all the worlds.

The Bridge of Hope

You crossed the world in spirit. I believe you have taken the first step to cross it physically also. You are the last nation of Israel, a world furnished for tomorrow's life. Arrive at the "cross of the sabbat" your eagle supports with your timeless grace. Your soul flies up to your Father!
