A woman with long brown hair is wearing a brown, long-sleeved dress with intricate white and gold embroidery. The dress features a V-neckline with a white lace border, floral embroidery on the chest, and large white lace panels at the bottom. She is also wearing a gold headband, large gold earrings, and multiple gold bangles. She is standing in front of a white wall with a decorative pattern, and a large, ornate chandelier with many crystal droplets hangs above her. Her right hand is raised towards her head, and her left hand is raised towards the chandelier.
