"The clothes or accessories you do or don't wear are a statement, a reflection of yourself; that is why you should always try to wear 'who you are' not anyone else."

"Fashion is not a government, is not political; and yet it moulds the world much the way religion does. It includes and enforces its own rules, languages, disciplines. It has its own territories, its own languages, its own hierarchy."

"A beautiful dress may look beautiful on a hanger, but it is not when it is worn. It is not when it is seen on the shoulders, with the movement of the arms, the legs, and the wind."

GORGEOUS Women

"Clothes can suggest, persuade, connote, intimate, or indeed lie, and apply subtle pressure while their wearer is speaking frankly and straightforwardly of other matters."

CLASSIC Appeal

"The fashion look of form and twist sometimes once so cutting edge is now the most classic move played on the runway, a matter of time. Safe, chic, everywhere."
