Printed silk sarees are a popular garment in India favoured by the rich and poor alike. Printed silk sarees that have lesser embellishments and rely more on the pattern and quality of material are favoured by working women because they are light in weight and easy to wear. These are daily use garments that are worn by women at home and in the office.

As methods & techniques have evolved, the patterns on saris also have changed a lot. Earlier, floral patterns were the only type of prints available but as the times have changed,

The Indian subcontinent is the abode for the hand work produce.
The skill of weaving and dyeing of cotton was recognized in India some 5000 years ago. Every state has its own time-honored cotton weaving practice.

Rajasthani sarees are worn in Holi, Diwali, Dussehra, Rakhi, Navratri and all the other festivals of our country. Indian Rajasthani sarees are also worn in the workplace.
